

Hi My Client:

1st step - What is your experience with this? when it was like that? how was that? What was useful?

if sufficient - stop - if not sufficient go to the next step

2nd step - What do you know about other people experience with this? How was that? What was useful for them? How can you/we utilize it?

if sufficient - stop - if not sufficient go to the next step

3rd step - Would like to meet with people with such experience? Go and find out about their experience! How was that? What was useful for them? Go, find out, come back, share with me! How can you/we utilize it?

if sufficient - stop - if not sufficient go to the next step

4th step

Would you like to listen to my knowledge about other people and their experience with this? If yes I can share with you! So it was like that....

How can you/we utilize it?

if sufficient - stop - if not sufficient go to the next step

5th step

Would you like to listen to some "books" knowledge I have about this?

if yes I can share with you! So it's like that...

How can you/we utilize it?

if sufficient - stop - if not sufficient go to the next step

6th step

So what we can do now is to co-create prototype! Are you interested in this? if yes let's do brainstorming and develop prototype! Than you'll check it out!

if sufficient - stop - if not sufficient go to the next step

7th step

Pray for inspiration to your personal God! Keep your mind open for God's advices!

Remember messenger can appear in very different context! Come back with your observations!

if sufficient - stop - if not sufficient go to the next step

8th step

let's focus on coping with this, as long, as we'll not be able to find out something useful...

Please remember - skip and reformulate while looking for useful strategies:)

created by Tomasz Switek within Situational Model of SFBT